University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Provost & Academic Affairs

School of Health and Human Sciences

Public Health Education

Community Health Education (MPH)

SLO01: Advocate for Health and Health Education
Graduates will be able to advocate for health and health education.

SLO02: Community Assessment
Graduates will be able to assess community needs for health education and community capacities to meet these needs.

SLO03: Program Administration
Graduates will be able to administer community health education strategies, interventions, and programs.

SLO04: Program Implementation
Graduates will be able to implement community-based health education strategies, interventions, and programs based on health education standards for implementing programs.

SLO05: Program Planning
Graduates will be able to plan health education strategies, interventions, and programs based on established health education standards for planning.

SLO06: Research and Program Evaluation
Graduates will be able to apply appropriate research and evaluation principles and methods to evaluate the effectiveness of community health education programs.

SLO07: Serve as Health Education Resource
Graduates will be able to serve as a health education resource person.
Filter Criteria
Prepared by: William Jones

Start and End Dates Filter:
Start Date: 7/1/2014
End Date: 6/30/2015

Common Field Filters: N/A

Custom Field Filters:
  Student Learning Outcome  No custom fields for this data type.