Student Learning Outcomes

University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Provost & Academic Affairs

School of Health and Human Sciences

Human Development & Family Studies

HDFS (BS)

SLO01: Think Critically
Students will use critical thinking skills in examining theory, research, and practice related to issues facing children, adults, and families.

SLO02: Adopt an Ecological Perspective
Students will apply an ecological approach to interpret research and observations concerning the lives of individuals and families across the lifespan.

SLO03: Demonstrate Effective Written Communication Skills
Students will apply professional written communication skills to communicate information related to the lives and experiences of children, adults, and families.

SLO04: Demonstrate Effective Verbal Communication Skills
Students will professional verbal communication skills to communicate information related to the lives and experiences of children, adults, and families.

SLO05: Value Diversity
Students will recognize the importance of diversity as setting a context that shapes human development and family relationships.

SLO06: Demonstrate Professional Competence
Students will demonstrate behavior in supervised professional experiences that is competent, ethical, and professional, suggesting that the student is engaged and committed to the profession.

Filter Criteria
Prepared by: William Jones
Start Date: 7-1-2013
End Date: 6-30-2014
Filter Options: N/A