Student Learning Outcomes

University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Provost & Academic Affairs

School of Education

Specialized Education Services

Special Education (PhD)

SLO01: Research. Produce and share scholarly knowledge that contributes to the professional knowledge base in special education.

Students enrolled in the Ph.D. in special education in the Department of Specialized Education Services at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro will conceptualize, implement, and disseminate special education research, using qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods, or single case methodology.

SLO02: Personnel Development (i.e., College Teaching and/or Professional Development). Provide highly effective (i.e., evidence and standards-based) personnel development that is aimed at improving special education practice.

Students enrolled in the Ph.D. in special education in the Department of Specialized Education Services at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro will apprentice through shadowing, then develop and provide effective personnel development, to undergraduate students and/or practicing school personnel, which is aimed at improving special education practice.

SLO03: Service. Provide service (i.e., SPE knowledge, skill, ability) to benefit or support the profession, the university, or the community.

Students enrolled in the Ph.D. in special education in the Department of Specialized Education Services at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro will use their knowledge, skills, and abilities to engage in professional service that benefits or supports the SPE profession, the university, or the community.

Filter Criteria
Prepared by: William Jones
Start Date: 7-1-2013
End Date: 6-30-2014
Filter Options: N/A