Special Programs in Liberal Studies (BA) Humanities

SLO01: Describe and Evaluate How the Humanities Represent Experience and Can Be Applied to Your Life

Describe and evaluate how the Humanities represent experience and can be applied to your life. Think critically and analytically about the Humanities, connecting academic learning in the disciplines to personal experience.

SLO02: Describe and Evaluate the Interconnections Among the Humanities

Describe and evaluate the interconnections among the Humanities. Demonstrate knowledge of the Humanities disciplines, their similarities and differences and how study in one discipline informs understanding in another.

SLO03: Read Texts with Careful Attention

Read texts with careful attention. Recognize how authors and readers create meaning in texts; identify key ideas in texts and rhetorical strategies used to develop them.

SLO04: Write Clearly and Fluently

Write clearly and fluently. Compose coherent, logical, and convincingly argued assignments (posts, blogs, essays, research papers, etc.) and edit writing so it conforms to standard usage. Recognize and use research tools in the humanities; incorporate research into writing.
