III. Other

Lakshmi Iyer mentioned that her department was notified that they must request online delivery in CIM for some of the classes that have been offered online for several years now. She expressed concern as to why this was happening, and Lisa Henline explained that the new CLSS system used by the University Registrar’s Office allows courses to be checked for the ONLC attribute. Lynn Wyrick stated that requesting online delivery for courses is a quick and easy process and does not require the review of the GCC.
